Program Changes:	+$7.9 million
FY 2024 Budget Request:	$161.6 million (568 positions; 46 attorneys; 154 agents)
Change From FY 2023 Enacted:	+$12.6 million (+8.5%) (+8 positions; +8 agents)

Mission:

The mission of the OIG is to investigate allegations of fraud, waste, abuse, and misconduct by Department employees, contractors, and grantees, and to promote economy and efficiency in Department operations. The OIG is an independent entity within the Department that reports to both the Attorney General and Congress on issues that affect the Department's personnel or operations.

Organization:

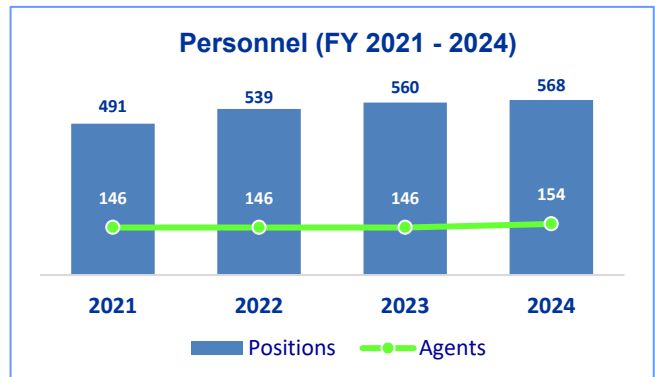

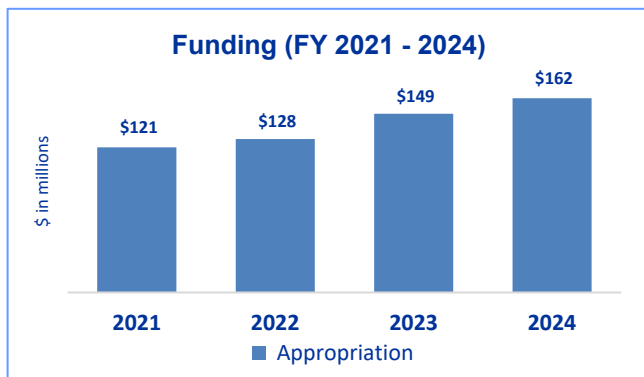

The OIG consists of the Inspector General, the Deputy Inspector General, the Office of the General Counsel, and six divisions each headed by an Assistant Inspector General. The six OIG divisions are: the Audit Division, the Investigations Division, the Evaluation and Inspections Division, the Oversight and Review Division, the Management and Planning Division, and the Information Technology Division. The OIG operates Audit and Investigations field offices in 15 cities throughout the Nation.

Resources:

The FY 2024 budget request for OIG totals $161.6 million, which is a 8.5 percent increase over the FY 2023 Enacted.

Personnel:

The OIG's direct authorized positions for FY 2024 total 568 positions, including an increase of 8 positions over the FY 2023 Enacted of 560 direct authorized positions.

FY 2024 Strategy:

The OIG is committed to assuring the Attorney General, Congress, and taxpayers that the substantial funding provided to support the Department and its infrastructure investments are used efficiently, effectively, and for their intended purposes.

The OIG has jurisdiction over all complaints of misconduct against Department employees in the Federal Bureau of Investigation; Drug Enforcement Administration; Federal Bureau of Prisons; U.S. Marshals Service; Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives; and other Offices, Boards and Divisions.

In FY 2024, the OIG will continue to investigate alleged violations of criminal and civil law, regulations, and ethical standards arising from the conduct of Department employees in their numerous and diverse activities. The OIG will also audit and inspect Department programs and assist management in promoting integrity, economy, efficiency, and efficacy. The OIG also plans to fully meet its responsibilities to oversee the Department's critical counterterrorism, information technology, cybercrime, detention, incarceration, law enforcement, and grant-related activities.

FY 2024 Program Changes:

Civil Rights Violations, Cybercrime, and Fraud Investigations: $1.9 million and 8 positions (8 agents)

The OIG requests a program enhancement of $1.9 million to support its efforts in conducting complex criminal investigations and investigating highly sensitive matters relating to allegations of waste, fraud, abuse, and misconduct involving DOJ programs and personnel. Current services for this request are $40.7 million and 175 positions (146 agents and attorneys).

Cybersecurity and Technology Enhancement: $4.9 million and 0 positions

The OIG requests a program enhancement of $4.9 million focusing on three crucial areas: (1) modernizing the OIG's mission and business processes through the deployment of software automation, (2) enhancing the OIG's security footprint and eDiscovery capabilities by implementing Artificial Intelligence and Machine Learning, and (3) updating and maintaining the OIG's Body Worn Camera Program. Current services for this request are $19.1 million and 29 positions.

Zero Emission Vehicles: $1.1 million and 0 positions

In support of the President's goal of transitioning to a fully Zero Emission Vehicle Federal fleet, the OIG's budget includes $1.1 million for zero emission vehicles (including battery electric, plug-in electric hybrid, and hydrogen fuel cell vehicles) acquisitions and deploying vehicle charging and refueling infrastructure. This is part of the Department's comprehensive plan pursuant to E.O. 14008, Tackling the Climate Crisis at Home and Abroad. Current services for this request are $615,000 and zero positions.
