That investigation includes the investigation and prosecutions referenced and described in Untied States v. Robert Hunter Biden, Criminal Action Nos. 23-mj-274 (MN) and 23-61 (MN) (D. Del.). The statement presents the expenditures of the Special Counsel's Office (SCO) for the period of August 11, 2023 through September 30, 2023, including direct-funded, reimbursed, and non-reimbursed expenditures. All amounts shown refer to the aforementioned reporting period only.

When first appointed on August 11, 2023, Special Counsel Weiss utilized space; communications; utilities; printing and reproduction services; other supplies, materials, and contractual services of the U.S. Attorney's Office for the District of Delaware, without reimbursement from the Special Counsel's Office. These expenses are not reflected in this report. The Special Counsel's Office shortly after the end of the reporting period on September 30, 2023, acquired and is expending funds for space, communications; utilities; printing and reproduction services; other supplies, materials, and contractual services; and personnel. Expenditures for these categories will be reflected in the report for the current reporting period, which ends on March 30, 2024. See 28 C.F.R. §600.5 and 600.8.

- B. Funding: SCO expenditures are funded by 1) the permanent, indefinite appropriation for independent counsels (IC Appropriation) (28 U.S.C. § 591 note), which the Department of Justice (DOJ) has determined is legally available to fund this SCO investigation (see also Government Accountability Office opinion agreeing with DOJ that this appropriation was legally available to fund special counsels (B-302582, Sept. 30, 2004)); and 2) the direct appropriations of DOJ components who have incurred non-reimbursed expenditures in support of the SCO. Expenditures funded through the IC Appropriation are a combination of expenses directly incurred by the SCO and expenses incurred by other components of DOJ and reimbursed by the IC Appropriation.
- C. DOJ component expenses: Although not legally required, DOJ components that support the SCO were asked to track non-reimbursed expenditures attributable to this investigation, which includes hours worked by agents and investigative support analysts and may include the cost of protective details for the Special Counsel if warranted. The expenditures for this period totaled $132,098.
